IN THE EVENT OF ACTIVE SHOOTER ON CAMPUS...

You Should:

GET OUT: Evacuate the building
- Have an escape route planned.
- Leave belongings behind.
- Keep your hands visible.

HIDE OUT: Shelter in Place
- Lock/barricade doors & windows.
- Stay calm and out of sight; close blinds.
- Turn off lights, TVs, PC monitors & silence cell phones.
- Take cover behind concrete walls, heavy doors, desks, etc.

CALL OUT: Alert proper authorities
- Call 911.
  - Call NU Security - (989) 837-4373.
  - Lines may be busy, redial if needed.
  - Respond to dispatch questions.

TAKE OUT: Engage the shooter
- Engage captor/shooter as a last resort only when your life is in grave danger.
- Attempt to incapacitate the shooter by any means possible.

Police officers will:

TAKE OUT: Engage the shooter
- Remember that the police response is focused on engaging and neutralizing suspects first.

LET OUT: Un-secure the area
- If you are secured in a room, wait for police to clear your area.
- Consider risks before un-securing a room.
- Police officers will respond to anything as a threat until it is identified and neutralized.
- Attempts to rescue people should only be attempted if it can be accomplished without further endangering the persons inside a secure area.
- If doubt exists for the safety of the individuals inside the room, the area should remain secured until police clear the area.

We will:

REACH OUT: Be supportive of others, stay positive
- Upon assailant neutralization, the police will then focus on evacuating victims, providing follow-up care, and conducting a criminal investigation.
- The Crisis Management Team will conduct head counts and an assessment of campus community needs.
- The University will provide appropriate follow-up care for students, faculty, and staff as needed.

In an EMERGENCY: dial 911
