Personal Statement

---

Northwood takes great pride in providing a personalized educational and training experience for its students. The reason such a high percentage of our students have academic success and enjoy collegiate life at Northwood is the good atmosphere and attitudes shared by faculty and classmates for successful learning. So that we can more effectively counsel you to make certain that the Northwood experience will be successful for you, please take a moment to tell us about yourself. Don't make this an agonizing chore that you have to put off for several days or weeks. Right now, while you are completing the application, take a few moments to write several paragraphs to say, "This is who I am" — don't be shy! Please comment on any hobbies, special interests, activities, work experience or travels you enjoy.

Thank you.

If there are special circumstances or concerns affecting your application of which you think we should be aware, please elaborate, e.g. prolonged illness, family situations, legal judgements, etc.

I understand that newly accepted students are expected to participate in college orientation and that adherence to the policies and regulations of Northwood is a stipulation of my admission and enrollment as a student.
